08/30/2024 08/31/2024 09/01/2024	Ye Good Olde Dungeon Crawl	(D&D 5e - 3 hrs) The pitch: ""A pick-up game of D&D running all convention long!!!!"".Are you're a fan of weekend-long, open-world campaigning? Do you just wanna drop-in to ""roll dem bones"" while waiting for your next league game? Or do you simply love a good ole' dungeon crawl? Whelp, this IS the table that you're looking for! Having been run at several other gaming conventions, this dungeon crawl will be loosely structured on the following premise: a game-start ""in a tavern"" for each episode's beginning that will weave itself into the game sessions of the past. It is designed to be inclusive of all types of gaming experiences. As a GM of 30+ years, it is my goal to make the adventure fun for all players no matter the party size, XP composition or gamer familiarity with the system. The goal will always be the same, but how you get there is left to the player's imagination. Have fun playing low-tier adventures where XP will be given to allow for characters to level up, that is if you choose to play in campaign-mode. Boons can be applied to campaign-continuing characters when they perform 'acts of epicness'. Unique magic items given will be in-campaign only, which means D&D League characters are not appropriate to play. New (You've never played before - rules will be taught);Everyone (6+);The first game experiance will start the player with a 1st level pre-generated character or one made with San Japan 2024 staff. If you're playing in campaign-mode (i.e. joining other time slots later in the convention), you must leave the character sheet with the DM so you can continuously play the same character throughout the campaign.
